

Lemonize

lemonize my wounds and jeopardize jeopardize my scarless state and carve your eyes deep into heart it hurts so good make me earn you make me feel I fought and won and let me learn to learn to read your thoughts and eyes and in return I'll build bridges and dig tunnels just for you

pulverize pulverize my dreams and keep the U and I spread across the alphabet and fill my sky up with thunderbolts and clouds that rain on me and it hurts so good

make me turn blue cross the fucking rainbow for you let me burn burn burn burn just like the sun a million years from now I'll explode and fucking take you down with me

it'll hurt so good aim for my broken heart, shoot it down wait till I get back up and tape my heart together grow back the wasted love I spent on you in vain then unexpected out of nowhere you show up pretend to care and drown

shoot it down
