

Mt. Everest Mode

I work all week and live for my weekends where I can meet friends in trendy clubs all held clean by dresscodes
Mt. Everest Mode

We are the cream the peak the icing we're what you dream of
we are priceless
'xept for a free entry
into the VIP
lounge we'll do anything

Now look at those two where'd they get those shoes talking 'bout old news Did you just say no because of my clothes well then you should know that you're fucking superficial

We are the cream the peak the icing
we are priceless
into the VIP

One thing's keeping me alive and that is when I feel that I am miles higher then the liar and the coward I can't hide inside me nothing to be proud of so I try to let it out on someone else, it really helps I'm dumb enough to trick myself

We are the cream the peak the icing
